Things I'd like to remember from today's message...

WINTER WEATHER ALERT!

When winter weather arrives, check the radio stations of WDAC or WJTL to learn if the church activities for that day or evening have been cancelled or changed in any way. Both radio stations carry changes over the airwaves and on their internet sites. Check with the above stations whenever driving conditions are questionable and may influence a change in schedule. Also, if our Sunday morning worship services are affected by the weather, information may be available on WGAL-TV or their website.

"You have to eat!" – Love Feast and Communion

Thursday, April 2nd, 7:00 pm, Fellowship Hall

(childcare provided)

It's true. But we mean something more when we use this phrase. Our purpose is not only to convince our friend to eat, but to eat with us. Somehow, when we eat with others, we receive much more than physical sustenance. Our relationships are strengthened; the bonds of friendship are reinforced.

Jesus shared a very special meal with His disciples the night before He was crucified. He used this meal to teach His followers some very important spiritual truths represented by physical symbols. We believe that these symbols are important for us to practice as well so that we are reminded of these spiritual truths in our daily lives.

Each part offers a way in which we strengthen our community. The feet washing offers an example of service, the meal – a time of fellowship, and the bread and cup – a sign of spiritual communion. In gathering to eat together, we strengthen the bonds within while remembering and reflecting on all that Jesus Christ sacrificed and suffered on our behalf.

All Christians, whether you are a member of East Fairview or not, are invited... "You have to eat!"

District Senior Adult Spring Banquet
